

Job Opening: Part-time Adjunct Professor

CEFAM (Centre d'Études Franco-Américain de Management) is an international business school located in Lyon, France. Founded in 1986, CEFAM has grown to become the reference for American style business education in France.

CEFAM is currently looking for an adjunct professor to teach an undergraduate course in information systems from 13 May 2019 to 14 June 2019.

Course Description:

- Introduction to information systems in organizations, and explain the role of information technology as a business enabler
- Overview of hardware and software, database systems, and other applications in a business environment
- Evaluate the effectiveness of business applications in organizations
- Explore the different interactions between technology, customers, employees, processes, data in an organizational environment
- Discuss a variety of ethical and privacy issues that arise from the use of technologies
- Explain the impact of information systems on society, the evolving role of MIS in the organization, and careers in MIS

Desired Skills and Experience

Essential:

- Fluent English, native speaker preferred
- Authorization to work in France
- Doctorate or master's degree (BAC +5) in computer science or related field

Desirable:

- Experience teaching in an institution of higher education
- Professional experience in a relevant field
- Familiarity with American grading system (i.e. letters grades)

Please send CV to Erin Monaghan, Director of Faculty, erin.monaghan@cefam.fr - remuneration will commensurate with experience.